

Why don't we always play at the same time?

Frescati's policy is that you can book at most one week in advance. I book as soon as possible but sometimes other people succeeds in booking before me and so we are forced to change time or day